

Job Description

Job Title:	CNC Operator
Based:	Techni Engineering, Shrewsbury
Reports to:	Turning Section Supervisor
Role Purpose:	To operate CNC machinery to produce component parts to the required production standards.

Key responsibilities and accountabilities:

- Working and operating all machines safely in line with the company's health & safety policy.
- Load/unload the machines
- Measure components using standard measuring equipment
- Read drawing features that are being manufactured
- React to non-conforming parts that are produced.
- Change inserts/tooling as and when necessary.
- Report any problems to the setters.
- Ensure the health, safety and wellbeing self and other by working in a safe environment.
- Ensure materials are ready and by the machine when setting up a component
- Keep working areas and floors clean and free from oils and swarf
- Keep machines clean
- Report/identify any consumable items that need re-ordering
- Loading/unloading finished components/raw materials as and when required
- Checking goods inwards from external processing
- Part marking
- Packing finished components
- Picking raw material from the warehouse (Unit8)
- Progress and work towards objective from your Personal Development Plan
- Complete other duties as assigned from time to time as required by the business.

Essential Skills / Training for role

- Working within a metal working manufacturing environment.
- Able to use basic measuring equipment
- Able to work safely
- Be used to production work.

Desirable Skills / Training for role

- Familiar with CNC machines with Fanuc controls.
- Be able to read drawings.

Salary: DOE

If you feel you have the skills, aptitude and attitude to join our team we'd love to hear from you, please send your CV to giorgia.paoloni@techni.co.uk.